

AMENDED IN SENATE MAY 24, 2002

Senate Constitutional Amendment

No. 9

Introduced by Senator Speier

February 21, 2002

Senate Constitutional Amendment No. 9—A resolution to propose to the people of the State of California an amendment to the Constitution of the State, by amending paragraph (g) of Section 2 of Article XIII A thereof, relating to taxation.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

SCA 9, as amended, Speier. Property taxation: changes in ownership: exclusion: cohabitants.

Existing provisions of the California Constitution, with certain exceptions, place a limitation on ad valorem taxes on real property of 1% of the full cash value of that property. For purposes of this limitation, full cash value is defined as the assessor's valuation of real property as shown on the 1975–76 tax bill under “full cash value” or, thereafter, the appraised value of that real property when purchased, newly constructed, or a change in ownership has occurred after the 1975 assessment. The California Constitution excludes certain transfers of real property between spouses from classification as a “purchase” or “change in ownership” requiring reappraisal of the subject property for tax purposes.

This measure would exclude ~~the~~ a transfer made on or after January 1, 2005, between cohabitants of a personal residence from classification as a “purchase” or “change in ownership,” if the cohabitants coowned and resided in the personal residence for a period of 5 years before the transfer and the transfer is made either by reason of the death of the transferor or by a transferor who has been certified to have a terminal illness or terminal disease, as defined.

Vote: ²/₃. Appropriation: no. Fiscal committee: yes. State-mandated local program: no.

1 Resolved by the Senate, the Assembly concurring, That the
2 Legislature of the State of California at its 2001–02 Regular
3 Session commencing on the fourth day of December 2000,
4 two-thirds of the membership of each house concurring, hereby
5 proposes to the people of the State of California that the
6 Constitution of the State be amended by amending subdivision (g)
7 of Section 2 of Article XIII A thereof, to read:

22 (E) The distribution of a legal entity’s property to a spouse or 23 former spouse in exchange for the interest of the spouse in the legal 24 entity in connection with a property settlement agreement or a
25 decree of dissolution of a marriage or legal separation.

26 (2) For purposes of subdivision (a), the terms “purchased” and 27 “change in ownership” do not include the purchase or transfer of 28 the principal residence of a transferor to a cohabitant of that 29 personal residence, if all of the following requirements are 30 satisfied:

31 (A) The personal residence was coowned by the transferor and 32 the transferee for the five-year period immediately preceding the 33 transfer.

1 (B) The transferor and the transferee continuously resided as

4 (C) The transfer occurs on or after January 1, 2005.

5 (D) The transfer is made under either of the following
6 circumstances:

7 (i) By reason of the death of the transferor.

8 (ii) The transferor has been certified in writing by a licensed
9 physician and surgeon to have a terminal illness or terminal
10 disease. For purposes of this clause, “terminal illness” or

13 natural course.
